For Sale : € 32,000

Description
Village life sits close at hand in Agios Dimitrianos, where these fourteen fields lie at different spots near the village centre, with the neighbouring villages of Psathi and Melamiou also close by. It is a rural setting of village streets and open fields, and the Kannaviou Reservoir is within a drive for days spent outdoors.

Together the fields cover 110,257 m², and each one abuts a road. Their planning brings together agricultural, residential and protection uses. Parts of the land lend themselves to farming, parts offer room for a home, and part lies in a protection zone. One field holds an old building with a collapsed roof.

Spread across several locations around the village, the fields offer a measured, uncomplicated way to own a piece of this countryside, with ground to cultivate and residential land to consider at your own pace. The sale covers shares in these fields rather than whole ownership.

Fourteen fields, one village, and the open land that surrounds it.
