Village life sets the tone in Agios Ioannis, in the Nicosia...

For Sale : € 190,000

Description
Village life sets the tone in Agios Ioannis, in the Nicosia district. The village centre is a short drive away, and the countryside around the nature spot of Korakas is just as close. It is a residential setting where neighbouring villages such as Arediou are also within easy reach.

This residential land of 3,101 m² forms a shared development of nine residential plots. Three houses already stand within it: two completed and one partly built. The land has no direct road access.

The part on offer takes in five plots with no buildings yet and one plot with a partly built house. Each empty plot leaves room for a home, a canvas for something shaped to your own taste in a relaxed village setting, with neighbours' homes already taking shape around it.

The sale is a 75% share of the land, and a distribution agreement signed with the co-owner assigns this share to those five empty plots and the plot with the partly built house. A village development already under way, with space to add your own chapter.
