In March 2026, the local real estate market is notably robust following the landmark January 1st tax reform, which fully abolished stamp duty on all new property contracts and removed the Special Defence Contribution on rental income, significantly improving net acquisition value and yield potential for investors. Furthermore, the 2026 market is supported by the 6th Edition of the Housing Scheme for the Revitalization of Specific Rural Areas, which launched on March 2, 2026, providing significant financial incentives for primary residence construction in the Nicosia district.
