Description
Astromeritis, in the Nicosia district, is home to this group of four agricultural fields with a combined area of 16,389 m². Three of the fields sit side by side as one continuous piece of land, and the fourth lies close by.

The land is zoned for agriculture and lends itself to farming or planting. Access is good via the main Nicosia to Troodos road, and the village centre and neighbouring Potami are a short drive away. Together, the four fields form a sizeable agricultural holding in Astromeritis.
