For Sale : € 110,000

Description
Close to the heart of Temvria, this sizeable residential plot puts village life on your doorstep. Everyday errands, a coffee in the square and the familiar rhythm of a Cypriot community are all within easy reach of home.

At 4,140 m², the land is zoned for residential use and has direct road access along its frontage. That gives you room for a home of your own design, planned around the way you want to live rather than fitted into someone else's layout.

The setting reaches well beyond the village too. Troodos National Forest Park is a short drive away, so weekend escapes into the forest can become part of ordinary life. The main roads are close by for the daily journey, letting you enjoy the calm of the village without feeling cut off from the wider district.

A large plot with the village centre close at hand and the forest within a short drive, this is a setting that rewards a closer look.
