Description
A big garden sets the tone for this two-storey house in Agios Vasileios, Strovolos. It stands in a residential part of Nicosia, with a medical centre within walking distance and the city centre within easy reach.

The ground floor is made for gathering. Two living rooms, a dining room and a sitting room with a fireplace leave space for lively family evenings and for slower winter nights by the fire. The kitchen has its own dining area for everyday meals. A guest toilet and a staff room complete the level, and a basement adds further space below.

Upstairs, a second sitting room sits alongside four bedrooms. One bedroom has an en-suite shower room. Another has its own walk-in closet and a private bathroom, and a separate bathroom serves the rest of the floor.

Outside, the garden invites long afternoons in the open air. An auxiliary room and covered parking sit on the plot as well. Schools, shops and cafés are a short drive away. Here is a generous home with room for every part of family life, close to all the city has to offer.
