Description
Village life sets the tone here. Just outside Kyperounta, this field lies among homes and open parcels of land, with cafés, restaurants and the local shops within walking distance. It is a setting where the day can still begin over coffee in the village and end at home, with the authentic side of Cyprus all around.

The land covers 1,004 m² and sits in a residential zone, offering room for a home of up to two floors. Imagine a family house rising here in the years ahead, part of a neighbourhood that is still taking shape, with the comforts of village life close at hand and the neighbouring villages of Chandria and Agridia a short drive away.

One point to know from the start: the field has no direct road access.

For anyone drawn to building a life in a real Cypriot village rather than a resort, this sizeable residential plot in Kyperounta offers a quiet foundation for plans of your own, rooted in village surroundings that feel genuinely lived in.
