For Sale : € 3,800,000

Description
Sea views and a setting of forest close to Kato Pyrgos harbour give these five adjoining fields in Pigenia their pull. The land falls gently away across a landscape shaped by nature rather than building, with forest, open parcels and only scattered homes around it, and it looks out over the surrounding countryside and the sea.

Together the fields make a large holding with more than one use. Part lies in a residential zone, with room for a home, and part is agricultural land suited to farming. A stream runs through one of the fields, adding a natural thread to the landscape. One field fronts the coastal road and has direct road access, while three of the fields have no direct road access.

The village centre and the neighbouring village of Mansoura are a short drive away, keeping everyday life within easy reach of this peaceful corner of the coast.

With the harbour close by and the sea in view, Pigenia offers a calm coastal setting where land, forest and water meet.
