Description
Set within Strovolos, in the Agios Vasileios quarter, this irregularly shaped field covers 14,661 m². It has direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services are available.

The land lies in two planning zones. Part is residential, with room for a home, and part falls within a protection zone. Around it are middle-class houses, empty plots and the occasional livestock farm. Lakatameia is close by, and the main motorways are within easy reach. The ground is flat and even across the whole field.
