Description
The seafront is just a short walk away, and from this land the sea shows on the horizon. In Polis, the field sits among holiday houses, hotels and shops, with a few undeveloped parcels still between them. It is an area shaped by the relaxed rhythm of coastal holiday life.

The land covers 15,051 m² of flat, even ground with an irregular outline. Its touristic zoning allows hotels, tourist villages or houses, each of up to two floors. Water, electricity and telecommunications can be brought to the land. The field has no direct road access.

Picture standing on this level ground with the sea in the distance and the beaches within walking distance. The village of Latchi is a short drive away, and Paphos International Airport is about 35 km off.

A large stretch of Polis with a distant sea view, flat ground and the seafront on foot, ready to be shaped around the holiday spirit of its neighbourhood.
