Description
Shops and supermarkets are within walking distance, and the beaches around Polis are a short drive away. This large residential field brings town life and the coast together. Covering 14,151 m², it lies close to the town centre, in an area of homes, tourist developments and undeveloped plots.

The land has direct road access along a long frontage, so coming and going is simple. Its residential zoning allows building on up to two floors, which leaves room for a home on a sizeable plot.

Imagine walking to the local shops in the morning and heading to the sea in the afternoon. In the evening, you return to the town's restaurants and cafés for dinner. Paphos International Airport is about 35 km away, which keeps travel straightforward.

Here is a large stretch of land in Polis, with the town and the beaches close by, waiting for the home you have in mind.
