Description
On the edge of Dali, in the Agios Konstantinos & Elenis neighbourhood, this commercial plot sits within easy reach of the Nicosia–Limassol motorway, the route that links the capital with the coast. Residential developments surround it, and Dali's industrial area lies close by.

At 5,219 m², the land is large, and it has direct road access, with a long frontage running along two of its sides. That frontage gives a business here a clear presence on the road and a straightforward arrival for customers, staff and deliveries.

The zoning is commercial, and the planning allows a building of up to three floors, so there is room to shape a business premises around your own plans. Dali's village centre and the town of Latsia are both a short drive away.

A sizeable commercial site with frontage on two sides and the motorway close at hand, waiting for the business you have in mind.
