Description
Just outside the centre of Armou, three adjoining fields come together as one large holding of 20,069 m². Farmland and open, undeveloped land surround it, giving it a relaxed rural feel with the village itself close at hand.

The land falls within both a residential and an agricultural zone. On the residential part, a home of up to two floors may be built, so there is room to create a life here among the fields. The ground slopes, and the land has direct road access along a dirt road. Electricity, water and telecommunications can be connected.

Everyday life stays simple. The village centre is only a short distance away, and an international school is a short drive from the land. Picture mornings in a village where open countryside starts right at the edge of your land.

For anyone drawn to an authentic alternative to town or resort living, this sizeable stretch of Armou countryside keeps village life within easy reach.
