Description
Between Pissouri's village life and the coastline, this large, level field offers a generous stretch of residential land. It covers 11,037 m², and its surroundings mix open parcels with a scattering of homes. The village centre is a short drive away, and Paphos International Airport is about 15 km off.

The ground is flat throughout, with an irregular outline. Road frontage runs along two of its borders, so the land has direct road access on more than one side, a practical start for whatever you plan to build.

The residential zoning gives room for a home of up to two floors. Picture it set on this level ground, with time to decide how house and land should sit together and where the open space belongs. Village errands stay close, and the coast remains within reach for the days you want to be by the sea.

Flat, sizeable and open to the road, this is a piece of Pissouri with room to shape a home of your own.
