For Sale : € 962,500

Description
On a road in Engomi that has grown into a commercial centre in recent years, this level plot of 920 m² opens straight onto the street. Shops and cafés stand right beside it, and the centre of Nicosia and the surrounding neighbourhoods are easy to reach from here.

Its commercial zoning points to business use, and the ground makes plans straightforward: a flat, even surface and a fairly rectangular shape, with direct road access along its frontage. It is a no-nonsense site where a building can face the street and be seen by everyone passing along it.

Around it lies a residential neighbourhood of detached and semi-detached houses, blocks of flats and residential developments. That means households of every kind live close by, with everyday life going on just around the corner.

Picture a business taking its place among the shops and cafés of Engomi, on level ground that meets the street and with the homes of the neighbourhood all around.
