For Sale : € 630,000

Description
A few minutes on foot bring you to the old walled heart of Nicosia, with its history and character close at hand. In Agios Antonios, homes and businesses share the streets, and cafés and restaurants are within easy walking reach, so the capital's daily life is all around you.

This 529 m² plot has direct road access along its own frontage. A former house has been taken down, leaving buildable land in a commercial zone, where up to eight floors may be built.

Picture a business address of your own here, close to the Liberty Monument and the old city, with shops and public service offices right next door. It is a setting where people pass by, stop and return, and where a new building can become part of the neighbourhood around it.

Central, connected and close to the old walls, this is city land with room for plans to take shape.
