City life unfolds all around this residential plot in Agios...

For Sale : € 670,000

Description
City life unfolds all around this residential plot in Agios Antonios, one of Nicosia's residential neighbourhoods. A primary school sits just across the way, and shops and cafés are within an easy walk, so the small rhythms of daily life stay close at hand.

The land covers 678 m² and has direct road access along its frontage. Its residential zoning allows a building of up to four floors, in keeping with the apartment buildings that shape much of the surrounding area. An obsolete building currently stands on the plot.

Picture mornings filled with the hum of school runs and neighbours heading out, and evenings when the old city of Nicosia within its historic walls is only a short drive away. It is an urban setting where convenience is part of everyday life rather than a journey.

A residential plot in the heart of a lived-in Nicosia neighbourhood, with the city's history and its daily comforts both within reach.
