Description
Anglisides, a village in the Larnaca district, frames this large field of 19,037 m². Around it, a mix of homes and undeveloped parcels gives the area a settled residential character, while the village centre and the neighbouring villages of Menogeia and Alethriko are each a short drive away. Larnaca International Airport is a drive away too, which keeps travel to and from the island within comfortable reach. The land lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Its generous size leaves space to imagine how a house could sit within this village setting, with the everyday life of Anglisides close by. The land has no direct road access. A straightforward piece of residential land in a village setting, where the size of the plot and the village around it carry the appeal. Well worth a visit to stand on it and picture a home of your own.
