of Alampra...

For Sale : € 600,000

Description
Close to the church of Agia Marina and the centre of Alampra village, this residential land sits among homes and open parcels, with village life just around it. It is a setting where the routines of everyday life stay close at hand. Two fields make up the land, together a sizeable 11,997 m² in a residential zone. A long frontage runs along the eastern side, and the land also meets a road to the north, giving direct road access. Water, electricity and telecommunications can be brought to the site. The ground is irregular in shape, with an uneven and sloping surface. Here there is room to plan a home of up to two floors, shaped around the land and its slopes, with the village a short way off. Shops and schools are a short drive away, and the motorway between Nicosia and Limassol is within easy reach, so both cities stay connected to life in Alampra. Generous residential land on the edge of a village, with long frontage and good links.
