Description
Within walking distance of the village centre of Tseri, two adjoining fields sit among homes and open parcels, close to the everyday rhythm of village life, with a school right next door.

Together they cover 3,224 m², and the land fronts roads on three sides, giving it direct road access. One parcel lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. The other is zoned for commercial use, where up to three floors may be built for a business. Having both uses side by side gives the land welcome flexibility.

The surroundings mix residential developments with undeveloped land, and the neighbouring towns of Lakatameia and Latsia are a short drive away. The land has no water, electricity or telecommunication connections.

A sizeable stretch of Tseri close to the heart of the village, open to both home and business plans.
