For Sale : € 460,000

Description
Geri offers a residential setting on the edge of Nicosia. Neighbouring Latsia is close by, and shops and schools are a short drive away. Around this field, homes stand alongside undeveloped parcels of land, giving the area an unhurried, open feel.

At 4,273 m², the land is large, and it sits within a residential zone. That gives room for a home of up to two floors. It offers the chance to plan slowly and to imagine how a future house could take shape here, in a neighbourhood where everyday life carries on around you.

The land has no direct road access.

Unpretentious and full of quiet promise, this is a sizeable piece of residential ground in Geri, with Latsia close at hand.
