For Sale : € 508,000

Description
Within the village of Ormideia, with its centre close at hand and the sea not far away, these adjoining fields bring together a large stretch of residential land and the easy rhythm of village life.

The main field alone covers 10,271 m² of land in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Around it, undeveloped parcels sit alongside some residential developments, so the area feels part village, part open land. Supermarkets and shops are within walking distance, and the neighbouring village of Xylotymbou is a short drive away.

Picture days shaped by village life: a stroll for the morning's groceries, a coffee in a nearby café, and the coast only a short trip away when the afternoon calls for the sea.

The sale also includes a 1/2 share of the adjoining field. A distribution agreement is in place for the land. With generous space, a residential setting and Ormideia all around, this is ground on which to picture a home of your own.
