For Sale : € 483,000

Description
Distant sea views stretch out from this residential field in Agia Paraskevi, Germasogeia, which sits slightly above the level of the road that runs along it. The neighbourhood mixes homes and tourist developments with open parcels of land, and the town centre is only a short drive away.

Zoned for residential use, the land offers room for a home of up to three floors, with direct road access along its frontage. Water, electricity and telecommunications are not yet connected to the land.

Imagine a home here shaped around that far-off line of sea, with the everyday life of Germasogeia and the city centre within easy reach. A distribution agreement is in place for the field, and the sale is a 24% share of it.

A raised position in a residential setting, with the sea on the horizon, makes this a place to picture your own home taking shape.
