Description
Set among farmland and undeveloped parcels within Pegeia, in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 34,449 m² of open ground. Its agricultural zoning makes it suited to farming or planting, and the land has a long frontage along a registered footpath.

The surrounding landscape is made up of fields and open land, away from dense development. Coral Bay and the village of Akoursos are both a short drive away. This is a large, uncomplicated piece of agricultural land in a rural part of Pegeia.
