Description
Just outside the village of Stroumpi in the Paphos district, this sizeable field sits close enough to village life to feel part of it. The village centre is a short drive away, and so is neighbouring Polemi, so everyday errands and a coffee in the square stay within easy reach.

The land covers 3,679 m² and lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. It has direct road access, and a long stretch of its boundary runs along a footpath. Around it, residential developments sit side by side with open parcels of land, giving the setting a settled, lived-in feel without crowding.

Picture a home planned around your own wishes on a large piece of land, with Stroumpi on one side and Polemi a short drive away. It is a chance to put down roots in a residential setting where village life is part of everyday living.

A large residential field on the edge of Stroumpi, with space to plan a home and the village close at hand.
