Description
Just outside Lasa, with the neighbouring village of Drymou a short drive away, this field lies in a residential setting where newer homes and open parcels of land sit side by side. It is a place where village life stays close at hand while the land around you keeps its open feel.

At 4,683 m², the land is large and falls within a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. A long frontage onto a registered road gives it direct road access, a practical footing for shaping your plans.

Picture a family home taking shape here, with Lasa's village streets and familiar faces close by. Schools and everyday shopping are a short drive away, so daily routines stay simple without giving up the calm character of a small village.

A sizeable residential field just beyond Lasa, with the road along its boundary and the village life you came for right beside it.
