Description
On the edge of Kathikas, a short drive from the village centre and from Peyia, lies a field of 2,030 m² in a touristic zone. Around it are open, undeveloped parcels and scattered homes, a landscape-led setting away from dense building. The ground slopes gently, and the land has direct road access along its frontage.

The zone allows tourist use, and homes, a small tourist village or a hotel are all foreseen, built up to two floors. Water, electricity and telecommunications can be brought to the land.

This is a sizeable, gently sloping plot with its own road frontage and a use set out for tourism.
