For Sale : € 193,000

Description
Close to the sea and to the village centre of Agia Marina, this field sits in the Chrysochous area of Paphos, surrounded by open, undeveloped land. It is a setting with a strong sense of space and a closer connection to nature, with village life still close at hand.

The land is flat and smooth, with an irregular outline and a long frontage that gives it direct road access. It lies in a residential zone, so there is room here for a home of up to two floors. Electricity, water and telecommunications can be connected to the site.

The surroundings invite unhurried days of exploring. The Ayia Marina Reservoir and the Gialia Monastery are each a short drive away, as is the neighbouring village of Gialia, and Paphos International Airport is about 40 km away.

The sale is of a 3/4 share of the field. What stays in the mind is the simple appeal of the place: level residential land, the sea nearby and a village centre close by.
