Description
Pissouri sets the scene for this residential plot, with the village centre a short drive away for its cafés, shops and everyday life, and Columbia Beach Resort within reach by car. It is a setting where homes already stand alongside undeveloped land, giving the neighbourhood a settled residential feel.

The land extends to 950 m² and lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Picture planning rooms and outdoor living around your own ideas, shaping a house that suits the way you want to live. Practical matters are already in place: water, electricity and telecommunication services reach the land, and it has direct road access.

For anyone coming and going from abroad, Paphos International Airport is about 15 km away, which makes trips back and forth simple to plan.

A residential plot in Pissouri with services ready at hand and the village close by, offering a clear starting point for a new home of your own design.
