Description
Choirokoitia wears its long history lightly. The Neolithic Settlement, a heritage site that draws visitors from far afield, is a short drive away, and so is the village centre with its everyday rhythm. In this setting, a residential field of 5,352 m² offers room for a home on the authentic side of Cyprus. The land has a smooth, gentle slope and an irregular shape. Some homes and open, undeveloped parcels make up the surroundings. Its residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors, and water, electricity and telecommunication could be connected. The land has no direct road access. Picture a home of your own design taking shape on this gently sloping ground, with village life and thousands of years of heritage close by. It is a sizeable piece of residential land in a village where the ancient past and the present sit comfortably side by side.
