For Sale : € 157,500

Description
In the residential quarter of Archangelos Anthoupoli in Lakatameia, this plot offers the chance to shape a family home from the very first sketch. Homes already stand all around it, with a few parcels still waiting their turn, so the neighbourhood has a settled character while it continues to grow.

Covering 597 m² and zoned for residential use, the land has room for a home of up to two floors. With nothing to inherit, every decision is yours from the outset: the layout, the flow from room to room and the way the house sits on its land.

Daily life is easy to picture here. Schools and parks are a short drive away, so school runs and evening walks fit naturally around the working day, and the wider life of Lakatameia is right on your doorstep.

A sizeable residential plot in an established part of Lakatameia, waiting for the home you have in mind.
