For Sale : € 145,000

Description
In the Agios Georgios quarter of Latsia, new homes are taking shape among middle and upper income residential developments, and fresh plots are being laid out around them. Here, a level piece of land offers room for a home of your own design, in a part of town that is still growing.

The land is flat and even, with direct road access along a long frontage. At 654 m², it gives a family house space to sit comfortably. Its residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors, so you can set your design priorities from the very start and shape the house around the way you want to live.

Daily life stays close at hand. Schools are within walking distance, and the motorway gives good access towards Nicosia city centre and the neighbouring areas. When the weekend comes, the open water and walking paths of Athalassa Lake are a short drive away.

A level, well-connected plot in a residential corner of Latsia, waiting for the home you have in mind.
