Description
On the edge of Xylofagou, where new homes sit beside open parcels of land, this residential field offers a welcoming start for a life in a Larnaca village. Its 2,828 m² lie in a residential zone, giving room for a home of up to two floors and the freedom to shape it around the way you want to live.

The land runs along a registered road, so it has direct road access along one full side. Around it, the neighbourhood is a mix of residential developments and undeveloped plots, a setting still taking shape.

Everyday life stays close. The village centre, with its cafés, restaurants and shops, is a short drive away, and so is a school. When the weekend comes, the greenery of Liopetri National Forest Park is a short drive from home, and the ancient Makronissos Tombs make an easy outing further afield.

A sizeable, uncomplicated piece of residential land, close to village life and the open landscape around it, ready for your plans for a home in Xylofagou.
