Description
A short drive from the heart of Kokkinotrimithia, this field of 2,124 m² lies in a residential zone among homes and open parcels of land. It offers a sizeable canvas for a home of up to two floors, set within a neighbourhood that is still taking shape.

Everyday life is close at hand. Cafés, restaurants, supermarkets and shops sit right beside the land, so morning coffee and the weekly shop need little planning. Schools are a short drive away, and the green surroundings of Gerogiannis are within easy reach for a weekend walk.

The land has no direct road access.

With its residential zoning, a village setting and the comforts of daily life on its doorstep, this field gives a clear starting point for a home in Kokkinotrimithia.
