Description
A short walk from the village church and close to the coastline, this field in Agia Marina, Paphos, sits within easy reach of village life and the sea. The neighbourhood around it mixes residential homes with some open, undeveloped parcels, giving it a calm residential character.

The land covers 2,435 m², with a flat surface and an irregular shape. It lies in a residential zone, so there is room for a home of up to two floors. Picture a house rising on level ground, with the village church nearby and the coast within reach for an evening stroll.

Everyday needs stay simple, with shops and a supermarket within walking distance. For time outdoors, the Ayia Marina Reservoir is a short drive away. The land has no direct road access.

Flat land near the coast, in a residential setting close to the heart of the village, gives a home here a strong place to begin.
