For Sale : € 124,000

Description
The sea lies only a short distance away, and Pigenia village is a short drive inland. This land is set among open farmland and undeveloped fields, a broad, uncrowded landscape with the coast close at hand.

The offer brings together two neighbouring fields that sit side by side. The land is zoned for residential use, which gives room for a home here, with open country around it and the sea nearby. The village centre covers everyday needs, and Gialia Monastery makes an easy outing further afield.

There is no direct road access on the ground. The sale includes the whole of one field and a 67/90 share of the adjoining field.

Open land near the coast, with a residential zoning and the village close by, offers a setting where a home could take shape.
