For Sale : € 121,500

Description
Village life and the Mediterranean shore meet in Pissouri. Here, a short drive from the village centre and within easy driving reach of Columbia Beach Resort, this 784 m² residential plot offers room for a private home shaped around the way you want to live.

The land sits among homes and open parcels in a residential neighbourhood. It fronts a registered road, so it has direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services are all available. The residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors, leaving you free to plan your living space across two levels.

Picture mornings beginning with coffee in the village, and afternoons spent by the beach at Columbia Beach Resort. Paphos International Airport is about 15 km away, which makes trips to and from the island simple.

This is a setting where the character of a Cypriot village and the pull of the coast sit side by side. It is a fine place to begin a home of your own.
