For Sale : € 116,000

Description
Life in Pissouri is the draw here. The village centre is a short drive away, and the beach at Columbia Beach Resort is within easy reach for long summer afternoons by the sea.

This 749 m² plot sits on residential land and offers room for a home of up to two floors, shaped around the way you want to live. It has direct road access along its frontage, and water, electricity and telecommunications serve the land. Around it, residential developments sit alongside parcels still waiting to be built on, so the neighbourhood is still taking shape.

Picture mornings that begin with coffee in the village, afternoons on the sand and evenings back at a home of your own design. When it is time to travel further, Paphos International Airport is about 15 km away.

With services at hand and both Pissouri village and the beach close by, this is a place to start the home you have in mind.
