Description
Village life in Klirou is only a short drive from this residential field, set among a mix of homes and open, undeveloped parcels. It is a setting with the easy rhythm of a Nicosia district village, where the centre, with its cafés and everyday shops, is close at hand.

The field covers 2,263 m² and lies within a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. That is a generous canvas, enough to imagine a house with plenty of open ground around it and the village close by.

The countryside is part of the appeal too. The nature spot of Perátis is a short drive away, and Mitsero mines Lake makes a longer outing for a slow weekend afternoon. The land has no direct road access.

A sizeable piece of Klirou in a residential setting, waiting for a home to give it shape.
