Description
Pissouri village centre is a short drive away, and Columbia Beach Resort lies not far off. Between the two sits this residential plot of 771 m², set among homes and undeveloped parcels of land. Here a new house can take shape around your own brief.

The land fronts a registered road, giving it direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services already reach it. Its residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors, so you can plan living spaces over two levels in the way that suits you.

Picture the life that could follow: mornings planning the house you have in mind, evenings in the village, and the beach at Columbia Beach Resort within reach for an afternoon by the water. Restaurants, cafés, shops and schools are all a short drive away, so daily needs are close at hand. Paphos International Airport is about 15 km away, which makes coming and going simple.

A well-served plot in Pissouri, with room for the home you have been imagining.
