For Sale : € 93,000

Description
In Kamares, a short drive from the centre of Tala, this residential plot offers a partial distant view of the sea. It is a calm starting point for shaping a home around your own brief. With 944 m² to work with, the land has room for a home of up to two floors.

Direct road access runs along its frontage. Water, electricity and telecommunications are already available, so the everyday essentials are in place from the start. It is an uncomplicated canvas for the home you have in mind.

Residential and tourist developments surround the plot, and restaurants, cafés and medical care are within walking distance. Picture an evening stroll out for dinner, then the walk home to a place designed the way you want it, with the sea showing in the distance.

A welcoming corner of Tala, with a glimpse of the sea and the village close at hand.
