Description
Pissouri sets the scene for this residential plot. The village centre is a short drive away, and Columbia Beach Resort lies within easy reach. Around it, homes sit alongside open parcels of land, giving a settled residential feel with room still to breathe.

The plot covers 687 m² of land zoned for residential use, with room for a home built over up to two floors. It fronts a registered road, so it has direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunication services already reach it. These are the practical essentials that let a project start on firm footing.

This is the groundwork for a long-term family home, shaped to your own plans from the very first sketch. Picture a life rooted in Pissouri, with mornings in the village, everyday errands close at hand and the beach resort a short trip away when the day allows.

It offers substance over show: a well-connected residential plot in a village setting, with the beach close by.
