Description
Just outside the village of Skarinou, this sizeable field of 2,040 m² offers a welcoming place to begin a home of your own. Around it, family homes sit alongside open parcels of land, giving the setting an unpretentious, residential feel with the village close at hand.

Zoned for residential use, the land has room for a home of up to two floors. It enjoys direct road access along one of its borders, so reaching your future front door from the village is straightforward.

Daily life stays simple here. Supermarkets and shops are within walking distance, and the Dipotamos Reservoir is a short drive away for weekends outdoors. When the city calls, the motorway is within easy reach.

Picture a home rising on this land, close to everyday essentials and to the countryside around the reservoir, with Skarinou just down the road.
