For Sale : € 82,000

Description
Just beyond the edge of Kampia village, with the waters of Tamassos dam close by, this residential plot offers a setting where a future home can take shape at its own pace.

Covering 695 m², the land lies among homes and open parcels, giving it a settled residential feel while keeping a sense of space around it. It has direct road access along its frontage. Its residential zoning leaves room for a home of up to two floors, so you can plan a family house around the way you want to live, from the layout of the rooms to where the morning coffee will be taken.

The neighbouring villages of Politiko and Pera are a short drive away, bringing village life and its everyday rhythm within easy reach, while Nicosia district life stays close at hand.

A home near the village and the dam is the promise here, and the plot is waiting for the plans that will bring it to life. Well worth a visit.
