For Sale : € 78,000

Description
Village life sits close at hand on this residential field just outside Stroumpi, in the Paphos district. Homes and open parcels of land share the surrounding area, giving it a settled, lived-in feel while leaving plenty of sky and space around you.

The land covers 2,007 m² and is zoned for residential use, so there is room for a home of up to two floors. A plot of this size leaves space to set a house among open ground and to plan it at your own pace, around the way you want to live.

The village centre of Stroumpi is a short drive away, and neighbouring Polemi is close by as well, so daily errands and a coffee in the square stay part of the rhythm of life here. The land has no direct road access.

A sizeable field with room for a family home, set beside a Paphos village with its own centre and a residential neighbourhood already growing around it.
