Description
Village life in Tochni sets the tone for this sizeable field of 2,676 m², a short drive from the village centre and from neighbouring Kalavasos. Around it, open parcels of land sit alongside some residential developments, giving the setting a residential character with a sense of space.

The land lies in a residential zone, which gives it room for a home of up to two floors. It is a plot on which to picture a family house taking shape, with the everyday rhythm of a Larnaca village close at hand.

The land has no direct road access.

A generous piece of residential land in Tochni, with village life just a short drive away.
