Description
In Tsada, Paphos, this plot sits among residential developments and undeveloped parcels, with direct road access along its frontage. The land combines two uses. Part of it is agricultural, suited to farming or planting. Part lies in a residential zone, with room on that part for a home of up to two floors.

The village centre and neighbouring Mesogi are a short drive away, main roads are easy to reach, and the motorway is a drive away. Its 1,177 m² make a versatile parcel that brings farmland and residential land together in one holding.
