For Sale : € 70,000

Description
Just beyond the village of Stroumpi in the Paphos district lies this field of 2,007 m², set within a residential zone. Homes and undeveloped parcels of land share the surroundings, giving the area a gently lived-in village character.

The residential zoning leaves room for a home of up to two floors, so this sizeable plot invites you to picture a house of your own here, with the village a short way off and open land around it.

Everyday life stays within reach. The centre of Stroumpi, with its shops, cafés and restaurants, is a short drive away, as are the schools and the neighbouring village of Polemi. The land has no direct road access.

A sizeable residential field on the edge of a Paphos village, with room to shape the home you have in mind.
