Description
A short way from the centre of Analiontas, a village in the Nicosia district, this residential field of 1,933 m² lies in an area of homes and undeveloped parcels of land. Village life sits close at hand, and the open landscape around it gives the setting a gentle, settled feel.

The residential zoning leaves room for a home of up to two floors. Picture a house of your own taking shape here, with the village centre nearby for everyday errands and the nature spot of Tamasos Lake a short drive away for a slow afternoon outdoors.

The land has no direct road access.

A sizeable piece of residential land in the heart of Analiontas, ready for your own plans for a home in the village.
