For Sale : € 50,100

Description
Coral Bay's sands are a short drive from this field within Pegeia, a village where homes and open, undeveloped parcels share the landscape. It is a setting where everyday village life and the coast both stay within reach.

The land extends to 2,342 m² and carries a mix of planning uses. Part of it lies in an industrial zone, where business use is the natural fit, so there is scope to put a commercial idea to work in a growing village. Another part falls within a protection zone, and that part comes with its restrictions. The field has no direct road access.

Around it, Pegeia offers its own rhythm of daily life, and Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away. Here is a sizeable piece of Pegeia land with business potential on its industrial part, and the beaches of Coral Bay a short drive off.
